SAYS DELICATESSEN INCREASES DIVORCES

The Rev. S. Parkes Cadman Finds the Real Reason for

of divorces. Speaking at the 4 Sunday meeting for men at the West Side Young Men's Christian Associatien. Dr. Cadman said that these increases may be directly charged to the delicatessen store habit.

"New York women are too prone to dip their fingers into every pickle jar of the orner delicatessen store instead of cookolesome meal for their husbands,"
"There is nothing that sends man day better prepared for victory than a good breakfast and a clean shave.
"Good breakfasts, honelike breakfasts, the kind of breakfasts that do a man good, do not come from the delicatessen shop. The delicatessen shop is catering to a general trade and cannot make things to a general trade and cannot make things individual would like them. er's worth of silced ham from a deli-sen shop will not give a man the satisfaction that a home cooked slice of ham will.

The woman who does her own cooking an get better cuts and choices of meats eries than the woman who delicatessen shop select the goods for

"Many men do not develop because of

Are Only Raids on Churches,

Speaking on "Foes of the Flag," the Rev. Harold Pattison in the Washington Heights Baptist Church yesterday morn-ing upheld the attitude of Dr. Woelfkin and Calvary Baptist Church in dealing with the recent raid made upon it by Bouck White and members of his Church of the Social Revolution. He did not attack Bouck White, but recognized him as a fellow clergyman of no mean ability. "With money riding up and down Fifth "With money riding up and down Fifth avenue and poverty only a few blocks away," said Dr. Pattison, "it is a wonder to me that nothing more serious than raids upon churches attended by the wealthy has occurred.

"Of course none of us believes in breaking up a church service, and I am sure we all honor Dr. Woelfkin and his church in the manner they handled such a serious situation. But do not let us fool ourselves that such men as Bouck White are cranks. Harvard and Union Seminary and no fool. The Christian will do well not to array itself on one side or the other too quickly.

The distaste of patient endeavor; the disinchination on the part of many of our best citizens toward civic affairs; the spirit of unbellef and the lack of faith in the future—all these are foes of our nation. It is time that men took a deeper likewest in the affairs of the nation and in nterest in the affairs of the nation and in casting their ballots on election day. Look at the figures of the large proportion of citizens who do not vote. If woman suf-

BROOKLYN PRIESTS SHIFTED.

McDonnell Announces Changes in His Diocese.

Bishop McDonnell of the Brooklyn focese has announced the following hanges among the priests of his diocese: The Rev. John B. C. York, V. F., rector of St. Brigid's Church. The Robinson, rector of St. Patrick's Church, Huntington Greenport, to succeed York at Huntington The Rev. John S. Gresser, rector of St. Berard Magelia's Church, Hollis, to be ctor of the Church of the Holy Family, Rev. Edward F. McGoldrick, act-tor of the Church of Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead, to be rector of St. Bartholohurch, Elmhurst. he Rev. Robert E. Boyle, the Rev. John Toole, the Rev. William T. Kerwin, Alphonsus Arcese, the Rev. Walter

erwin, the Rev. George Caruana and the Rev. Michael Walsh have also been trans-Second Annual Meeting of Federation of Oriental Jews. Oriental Jews of the city will asin Public School 21, Forsyth and and t this meeting. spoken by the members of the federation there will be speeches in Ladino, Greek Among the speakers will be Stephen S. Wise, Abram I. Elkus and

Commencement of Jewish Theological Seminary Next Sunday.

The Jewish Theological Seminary of ry synagogue by Rabbi Marvin programme for the exercises in-speeches by Jacob H. Schiff, Louis Marshall and President Schecter of the This year's valediotorian

The Rev. T. E. Gilmartin Eighteen

Rev. Terence E. Gilmartin, asto Mgr. Matthew A. Taylor at the hof the Blessed Sacrament, Seventstreet and Broadway, celebrated the blessed Broadway, celebrated mer. day the eighteenth anniversary of nation to the priesthood. Father in has been attached to the Church Blessed Sacrament for sixteen Last Saturday many young men women whom he baptized attended mass and received holy communion n his hands.

New Hebrew Educational Building

nues, Brooklyn; will be dedicated next Sunday afternoon. Addresses will be made by Comptroller William A. Prendergast, the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Judge Samuel Greenbaum, Abram I. Elkus and Felix M. Warburg. Simon F. Rothschild will make the formal presentation of the key to the building. Adolph Feldbium, president, will make the address of acceptance.

Catholic Library Association Celebrates 25th Birthday.

Finds the Real Reason for Inhappy Marriages.

Services to commemorate the twentyfifth anniversary of the founding of the Catholic Library Association of New York by the Rev. Father Joseph R. McMahon took place yesterday at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, as lemn high mass was celebrated by Father McMahon with the Rev. James
P. Sheridan as deacon and the Rev. Martin E. Fahy as subdeacon. The Rev. Cornelius Clifford of Whippany, N. J., lecturer of scholastic philosophy at Columbia University, preached the sermon. Father McMahon was host later at a dinner in the rectory at 472 West 142d street. His guests included Supreme Court Justice
John W. Goff, the Rev. Dr. James Driscoil, Mgr. James N. Connelly, Prof.
Charles G. Heberman and Louis Dempsey.

Cornerstone of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church Is Laid.

The cornerstone of St. Stephen's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Newkirk avenue and East Twenty-eighth street, Brooklyn, was laid yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Luther D. Gable, pastor; the Rev. C. B. Schuchard and the Rev. Dr. G. C. Beckemeler of the Mount Vernon Orphan Home made addresses.

Annual Pilgrimage of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society of Brooklyn will make its annual pilgrimage to Mount Loretto, Staten Island, next Sun-da. The members of the society will visit the Mission of the Immaculate Virgin, which is located at Mount Loretto.

Y. W. C. A. WORKERS TO SAIL.

Large Delegation From U. S. Will

Attend Stockholm Conference. ' Many delegates from the United States will attend the fifth annual international conference of the Young Women's Chriswomen are satisfied to stay in bed many women are satisfied to stay in bed in the morning and let their husbands get what breakfast 'they are able to. It is wrong to biame the man in such cases if he becomes dissatisfied with home life. He is more to be pitted than blamed.

"Married life is a partnership and a woman should be enough interested in her husband's work to help keep him physically fit. Woman has her part to do in the struggle for success. It's not much encouragement for a man to cook his own breakfast while his wife stays abed for specific map."

ASSAILS RICH FROM PULPIT.

Br. Pattison Wonders That There

Are Only Raids on Characters.

migration secretary of the national board.

Other delegates from the United States will be Miss Irene Arms, Miss Harriet Broad, general secretary, Boston; Mrs. Emma F. Byers, executive north central field committee; Miss Mary Corbett, student secretary northeast field committee; Mrs. James S. Cushman, first vice-president national board; Miss Caroline B. Dow, dean training school, national board; Miss Katherine Halsey, county secretary, Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania field committee; Miss Jennie Hendrie, member of west central field committee; Mrs. C. M. Hobbes, member of west central field committee; Miss Esther Kjelberg, Travellers Aid Society, Rochester, N. Y., whose home is in Stockholm; Miss Josephine Loveland, Miss Gertrude MacArthur, member national board; Miss Margaret O'Connell, industrial secretary north central field; Miss Mary Alice Finney, religious work director, Washington, D. C.; Miss Gladys Richardson, Mrs. W. W. Rockwell, member national board; Miss Pauline Sage, executive northeast field committee; Mrs. J. C. Scott, member of board, Spokane, Wash.; Miss Caroline B. Smith, formerly general secretary, Newark; Miss Lillian Trusdell, general secretary, St. Paul, Minn. secretary, Newark; Miss Lillian Trusdell general secretary, St. Paul, Minn.

$1,500 PRIZES FOR COMPOSERS.

Pavlowa Wants Music to Which She Can Standardize Dance.

Anna Pavlowa, the frage will help then I pray for suffrage."

Anna Pavlowa, the dancer, is to head
a movement to standardize modern society dancing, according to an announcement made yesterday through the office

BROOKLYN PRIESTS SHIFTED.

Anna Pavlowa, the dancer, is to head yell above the crash of surf and the shuffling of a multiude's feet.

""Is Sir D'yle!" he yelled.
And Sir D'yle it was, Sir Arthur Conan dancer, is to head dertaking will be national in scope and society women and women's organizations throughout the country will be over. He is a big man in many ways, posers of the United States or Canada.

The rules for the competition are few. Compositions, clearly transcribed, must be submitted to Mr. Rabinoff in the Metropolitan Opera House not later than politan Opera House not later than Au-gust 1. Each competitor may send in but one piece of music and the comin upper Flushing under patronage of St.

Andrew of Avelino. w of Avelino.

Rev. William L. O'Hara, D. D., rectage of the winners will be announced before the dancer begins her season in November. Great on pleasing generalities, but he Either amateur or professional composers may compete.

Many More Cottages Opened, With

semble in Public School 21, Forsyth and Stanton streets, next Sunday at the second annual meeting of the Federation of Oriental Jews of America. It is expected that important announcements about the future policy of the federation will be Stillman 2d, Dr. Lewis F. Frissell and Stillman 2d, Dr. Lewis F. Frissell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Beal of New York are at the Red Lion Inn.

Frederick S. Delafield, who passed the week end at Little Farm, has gone to Boston. Mrs. Charles M. Pollock arrived at her Pittsfield cottage. Dr. W. Gilman Thompson arrived yesterday in Stock-bridge and the Thompson estate, Hali-don Hall, was opened to-day. Bishop Thomas F. Davies of western Massachusetts is a guest of the Rev. and dewish Theological Seminary of a will hold its commencement exat Aeolian Hall next Sunday after- at 3 o'clock. The baccalaureate serial be preached on Saturday in the Emily Tuckerman are visiting Miss Emily Tuckerman in Stockbridge.

THE McADOOS RETURN TO-DAY.

Secretary and Bride Passed Honeymoon in Cornish, N. H.

WASHINGTON, May 31 .- The Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. McAdoo are expected back in Washington from their wedding trip to-morrow morning. They spent the greater part of the last three weeks at Harlakenden House, Cornish,

The Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall returned from their week's visit to At-lanta and other points in the South. The Secretary of War and Mrs. Garrison took a party to Annapolis yesterday for the Army-Navy baseball game and the hop at the academy. They returned to-

Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels went to Annapolis yesterday for the game, to Be Dedicated Next Sunday.

The new building of the Hebrew Educaenjoyed the hospitalities of the academy and returned to Washington to-night.

SIR A. CONAN DOYLE

Visits Steeplechase and Luna Parks and Does the

SEES CONEY SIGHTS

Bowery.

tions throughout the country will be asked to assist.

It is also hoped to enlist the aid of American musicians and composers, and accordingly a competition for modern society dance music to be used by Pavlowa will be held. The dancer will offer prizes bowed to the ocean, an old friend, from the Lynn Plar.

save Sir Sherlock Doyle and Dr. Watson Burns knows what deductions they worked out from trifles that dull men would never have observed. They had their heads together many times and Sir Conan's forefinger was cutting the air east of Mr. Burns's nose, but you couldn't shows only a bland smile to pressmen (British for reporters) when particulars automobiles. After a shore dinner at the Hotel Shelburne and a glimpse of exhibition hesitations and onesteps staged by Miss Cora Moreland the party went to Steeplechase Park, the Doyles marvelling at the great crowd in Surf avenue. They wondered where so may people got the money to spend. It wasn't that way in England, said Sir Conan. You had to be getting along toward old age before the money to spend. It wasn't that way in England, said Sir Conan. You had to be getting along toward old age before you had the tin for such amusements.

At Steeplechase George C. Tilyou, the boss, found a British flag somewhere and waved it vehemently under Sir Conan's nose. The band played "God Save the King" and other tunes meant to soothe the British breast, and then the party went to a band stand and watched the people at play.

Presently they breasted the Bowery Conan and Lady Doyle held hands as they shot the chutes and took rocketing rides. They spent haif an hour in the Castle House at Luna observing the modern dances. Sir Conan was heard to say that the craze was dying out, that he liked old dances best. After a return visit to Br party motored to Manhattan.

Vicar of Immingham Here.

The Rev. W. Miller Reid, vicar of Im-mingham, England, arrived here yesterday

MONTCLAIR, N. J., May 31.—Mr. and Mrs. William Jay Brandon of Montclair and New York have announced the enand New York have announced the argagement of their daughter. Miss Helen Brandon, to David Dudley Field Yard of New York and Atlanta. Ga New York and Atlanta, Ga. Orchardson for the season

SANDALS ON BOARDWALK.

Earrings and Roman Tunics Also at Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 31.-Strapped ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 31.—Strapped sandals, jet earrings and Roman striped tunics and skirts were features of the holiday fashion parade on the Boardwalk to-day. The new salamander fashions seen here last Sunday for the first time have came to stay, as scores of them appeared in this morning'a display.

The strapped sandals are the nattiest thing in the footwear line the season has produced. They are somewhat broad of produced. They are somewhat broad of toe and not extremely high of heel, with black patent leather straps running up or less becoming. The popularity of this latest fad is probably due to the fact that the jet bangles can be purchased along the Boardwalk as cheap as $1 a pair and the variety of design is endless. Some are jet and some are only, but all are hoop or oval shaped and large. The more expensive designs have two or more books one within the other. hoons, one within the other.

The Roman striped tunic has been seen here before to-day, but never in such numbers as appeared this morning. Some of the women prefer to have the skirt of the Roman striped material with the tunic, which reaches almost to the ankle. of some other material, while others prefer to reverse the style and have the tunic made of the Roman stripes. Some of the patterns seen to-day were startling in 1756 by the Rev. Samuel Johnson, Columbia's first president, and then launched

LAMBS' GAMBOL NETS $85,000. Public Pays About $115,000 to See Performances.

The members of the Lambs Club, who have been having an all star gambol in the larger Eastern cities for the last nine days, got home early yesterday morning are wanted.

In the party were Mr. Burns and Mr.
Burns's family; Sir Conan and Lady
Doyle, Acting Captain of Detectives William J. Deevy and two Central Office men.

days, got home early yesterday morning and last night gave an extra performance of their gambol at the Hippodrome at reduced prices, but at that orchestra seats were $2.50. The theatre was crowded of their gambol at the Hippodrome at re-duced prices, but at that orchestra seats were $2.50. The theatre was crowded Wisitors Numerous.

Lenox, Mass., May 31.—Visitors at the Lenox villas played the first Sunday golf of the season here this morning in the cool bracing air.

Mrs. John Butler Swann and Lawrence and Charles Butler of New York are with Mrs. John Swann in Stockbridge.

St. Henry Kright of London, who was stated to see that nobody put anything over on Sherlock Holmes when Dr. Watson wasn't looking. Mr. Burns Dr. Watson wasn't looking. Mr. Burns Swann and Lawrence and Charles Butler of New York are with Mrs. John Swann in Stockbridge.

St. Henry Kright of London, who was stated as two Central Office men, who were three to see that nobody put anything over on Sherlock Holmes when Dr. Watson wasn't looking. Mr. Burns Dr. Watson wasn't supposed to be detecting.

They lunched at the home of William S. Kenny in Bay Ridge, Shore Acres, and then drove to Brighton Beach in three automobiles. After a shore dinner at the home members of the club also got on the stage last night as minstrels.

The receipts on the trip were about $115,000 and the club will net about $85,000. One of the other gambols made a little more, but the trip just ended is considered by the club members to have been unusually successful considering that it has been an off year in theatredom.

"ROBIN HOOD" AT ARDSLEY CLUB Outdoor Performance to Be Given

Next Saturday Evening. TARRYTOWN, N. Y., May 31.—An out-door performance of "Robin Hood and His Merrie Men" by the Frank Lea Short

Players will be given at the Ardsley Club next Saturday evening on the lawn in front of the clubhouse.

Last night there were several dinner parties followed by dances. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Johnson, Mrs. B. A. Harned, Mrs. M. W. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Lohn F. Haveneyer, Mrs. Charles, J.

to pay a visit to the descendants of the John F Havemeyer, Mrs. Charles J. Pilgrims who sailed from the banks of the Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Walston Brown, Miss river Humber in 1608 for Holland and finally reached Plymouth, Mass., in 1620, Frazer, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Lambert, Mr. He expects to raise funds here to aid in the restoration of old St. Andrew's church. Immingham, which many of the Pilgrims.

Miss Helen Brandon Engaged.

Montclair, N. J., May 31.—Mr. and Mrs. R. Resor.

Mass. It loso, Frieder, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Campbell, Mrs. and Mrs. N. A. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Smith, W. C. D. E. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Campbell, Mr

> Takes House for London Season. S. Montgomery Roosevelt has leased the ondon house of the late Sir William

COLUMBIA'S BIGGEST CLASS HEARS ADVICE

Nearly 2,000 Graduating Students March in Baccalaureate Procession.

A belihop about whose nationality there could never be any dispute went down the front steps of the Hotel Shelburne at Brighton Beach last night lifting an able

Brighton Beach last night lifting an able

An army of nearly 2,000 students who are to receive degrees from Columbia University this week made the baccalaureate services which were held yesterday in the wearing them, and to many they are more wearing them. The popularity of this sive in Columbia's history of 160 years. The graduates of the various colleges of the university assembled in the library Fall River, Mass. He had been prominent fust before 4 o'clock for the procession to the gymnasium, the trustees of the university, the Rev. Raymond C. Knox, chaplain, and President Nicholas Murray Butler bringing up the rear. The sombre color were added by the hoods of the faculty members, of blue, gold, crimson into his sermon, which was an adm

Wherever Christ went among men first object was to make them think. first object was to make them think. He sought to arouse men to search and to free themselves from prejudice and blindness. In the fret and fever of our time the world needs the leadership of those whose ears are attuned to hear God's voice; who do not let absorption in busivoice; who ing at it only from the educational side the loss of a knowledge of the Bible and of all that the Bible means would be incalcuable to the life of the country. Study the Bible in the light of modern than 18 per second the Bible in the light of modern than 18 per second the Bible in the light of modern than 18 per second the Bible in the light of modern than 18 per second the Bible in the light of modern than 18 per second the Bible in the light of modern than 18 per second the Bible in the light of modern than 18 per second the Bible in the light of modern than 18 per second the Bible in the light of modern than 18 per second than 18 the Bible in the light of modern learning with the same thoroughness that char-acterizes the study of any other subject." The commencement week festivities will get into full swing to-day, when the Columbia College seniors have their class day exercises and the Barnard College graduates hold their annual class dance in Earl Hall. There will be a ball game between Columbia and Syracuse on South Field and a the dansant in Earl Hall in the afternoon. In the evening George Mothe afternoon. In the evening George Mc-Aneny, president of the Board of Alder-men, will deliver the annual Phi Beta men, will deliv Kappa oration.

The Seagoers.

Arrivals yesterday by the Cunarder Carmania, from Liverpool and Queens-Southampton and Cherbourg: Mr. and Mrs. Alanson The Rev. Thomas Mc-Bigelow, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Winsor H. Scofield. John E. H. Stanton. Alfred J. Everett. George Hyslop.

Weather at Spring Resorts. ATLANTIC CITY, May 31 .- Temperature,

OLD POINT, Va., May 31 .-- Tempera-ASBURY PARK, May $1 .- Temperature,

First of Series of Dinner Affairs Given at Lodge.

BRIARCLIFE, N. Y., May 31.—Dinner dancing at the Briarcliff Lodge gives promise of being quite as popular at this suburban resort as it is in town. The first of a series of such dances was held in the green dining room on Saturday evening under the direction of Mrs. Hawkesworth and Mrs. Groner, and attracted many persons from New York, as well as from the neighborhood.

well as from the neighborhood.

A swimming party made up of twenty young women students at the Knox School, Tarrytown, motored to the Lodge on Saturday afternoon and after high Jinks in the pool of the Casino the young women dined in one of the private rooms of the Lodge.

Wilson Gary Bibb has as his guests Col. Eccles of West Point and Dr. and Mrs. I. H. Claiborne of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew are at the Lodge for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bloodgood and Miss Rosaile Bloodgood are here for the season, as are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spadon, Mrs. John B. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Reed, Mrs. Andrew Little, Miss Jane Little, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Meldrum, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Eidlitz, Miss Grace Eidlitz, Mrs. Alfred L. White, Miss Elk F. Cusack and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Morgan.

Morgan.
Others at the Lodge are Mr. and Mrs.
E. W. Townsend, Mrs. W. A. Copp, Mrs.
J. H. Lary, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Buckman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Parmalee, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. D. Cranford Clark.

GEN. BUTLER'S ORDERLY DIES. William Philp Carried Messages or

Civil War Battlefields.

William Philp, who was promoted from private and orderly to regimental quartermaster under Gen. Benjamin F. Butler in master under Gen. Benjamin F. Butler in the civil war, died yesterday in the Soldiers' Home at Kearny, N. J., where he had been for the last fourteen years. He was 87 years old.

He was a landscape and portrait painter and as late as last Christmas painted several pictures for friends. He was an art student in Paris when the civil war broke out An American newspaper brought the news to him that war had been declared and he and three other American students agreed to meet in New York on a certain day and join the army. On the day appointed he was the only one of the four to appear at the enlistment bureau. He joined the First New York Mounted Riffes. Company F, and as an orderly for Gen. Butler carried many important messages on the battlefield. He was wounded in the left leg early in the war and the protection of copyright.

Thomas M. Robinson.

Thomas M. Robinson.

Thomas M. Robinson, who was for two terms president of the New York Cotton Exchange, died yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital. He was born in Island College Hospital. He had been was born in Island College Hospital. He had been was selected to cooperate.

Thomas M. Robinson.

Thomas M. Robinson, who was for two terms president of the New York Cotton Exchange, died yesterday at the Long Island College Hospital. He was born in Washington, N. C., in 1837. He had been a member of the New York Cotton Exchange since 1876.

Mr. Robinson married Miss Mary Hoyt of North Carolina, who survives him with their five children, Henry C. H. and Joseph C. Robinson, Mrs. Anne C. Bonnie, Mrs. May W. Sellman and Mrs. Eline B. Fewsmith. Mr. Robinson conducted his business under the name of T. M. Robinson & Co. at 15 William street. His residence was at the Hotel Mohawk, Brooklyn.

member operates, cities of 500,000 and more being in one class, of 250,000 in another, of 100,000 in a third, and so on. Even the manager of a theatre in a small town is welcomed to the new association; and in fact he is urged to cooperate.

Columbia University, commencement exercises, class day, gymnasium, 2 P. M. Phi Sigma Delta Fraternity, dinner, Hotel McAlpin, 8 P. M. People's Institute, Festival and Pageant of Nations, "Irish Night," Public School 63, Fourth street near Avenue A, 8 P. M. Bible Teachers Training School, commencement exercises, Lexington avenue and Forty-ninth street, 2:30 P. M. Gullmant Organ School, commencement

The Rev. William Kean.

The Rev. William Kean, S. J., died yesterday at Fordham Hospital after a long illness. He was born forty-four years ago in New York. Since he entered the priesthood twenty-three years ago Father Kean has spent most of his life in Philadelpiha and Washington. He is survived by his mother, two sisters and two brothers. He will be buried to-day at the Cemetery of St. Andrew, near Poughkeepsie.

ease to-day at Karlsruhe, his home Nepperhan Heights. Mr. Slade was in his fifty-sixth year. He was a native of in civic affairs in Yonkers. He vived by his wife and a daughter.

Henry W. Schroeder.

garbed line took more than half an hour to file into the gymnasium. Touches of had been attached to the Seventeenth inspection district. Long Island City, died yesterday in St. Mary's Hospital, Jamaica, after an operation for appendicitis. He was 39 years old and leaves a widow.

RIIS'S MEMORY HONORED

into his sermon, which was an admonition to the graduates to seek and know the truth at all hazards and to govern their lives in accordance with Christ's standards and not those of the world to-day.
"To the question. How to gain life?" he said: "Christ gives three plain directions, and the first is this: 'You shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free.' Wherever Christ went among men his presided. The principal address was de-livered by Dr. Jane E. Robbins, who has whose ears are actuated to hear God's voice; who do not let absorption in business and pleasure put blinders on their eyes, but who see life steadily, and see it whole.

"Former Ambassador Bryce said: 'Look-' Guild and the Rev. John Haynes Holme of the Church of the Messiah. About 50

Anthony Comstock, as president of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, has been invited to witness the first presenta-tion this afternoon of the photo play "The Escape" at the Cort Theatre. The play deals medically with the sex question and the management has asi d Mr. Com-stock to let them know if he finds anything objectionable.

"Pierrot, the Prodigal" has selected to complete the double bill with "The Naked Truth" at the Candler Theatre on June 8, succeeding "Antony and Cleopatra." The story of "Pierrot" has been adapted from the opera of that name by Mario Costa-

The interior of the Winter Garden will be changed before it reopens on Saturday night with "The Passing Show of 1914." The orchestra seats will be rearranged in saucer shape and the layout of the seats town:
Capt. F. W. Barrett.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Biggar Mr. Brand.
Capt. Leslic Cheape.
President Arthur T. Hadley of Yale.
Mrs. Hadley of Yale.
Mrs. Hadley.
Albert Halstead.
Capt. V. N. Lockett.
Do n a l d McMaster, Mr. and Mrs. John Traill.
Lady Scott.
Mrs. L. V. Beekman.
The Duke of Penarath Major oligity will-randa.
By the American liner St. Louis, from Southampton and Cherbours:

Arthur Walwin Ogden.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred-saucer shape and the layout of the seats made more commodious. There will also be a new orchestra runway on which the chorus will offer some dance evolutions.
Dorothy Nord, formerly of the vaude-ville team of Von Tilzer and Nord, has been engaged by A. H. Woods for the prima donna role in "Mile. Tra-La-La." which he will produce next season. Mr. Von Tilzer has been engaged to write the interpolations for the American version. The play is now running at the sion. The play is now running at the Lyric Theatre, London.

The company which has been playing "Panthea" at the Booth Theatre was not disbanded on Saturday night after closing its engagement. With Olga Petrova continn the title part the piece will open on June 6 at the Garrick Theatre, Chicago.

Owing to scarlet fever in Auburn penitentiary the convicts there who had planned to give two of the Princess Theatre playlets in an amateur way on Memorial Day had to postpone the performance. The playlets, it is now thought, will be presented on July 4.

In peace.

CREMATORIES.

INTELLIGENT, scientific and sanitary method. U. S. Cremation Co., Middle Village, the last presented on July 4.

MANY DANCE AT BRIARCLIFF. SHOWMEN ORGANIZE A PROTECTIVE BUND

New York Managers Lead in Forming an Alliance to Be Countrywide.

KLAW IS MADE PRESIDENT

Antagonistic Legislation in Various States to Be Fought as a Unit.

An association to include practically all theatrical managers of the country for mutual benefit and protection has been formed. Besides Klaw & Erlanger and the Shuberts, the Keith and other vaude-

the Shuberts, the Keith and other vaudeville interests and the moving picture people are included in the organization.
At a meeting at the Hotel Astor Saturday, at which seventy representatives of various theatrical groups were present, the following officers were elected:
Marc Klaw, president; Lee Shubert, Abraham Erlanger, E. F. Albee and Henry W. Savage, vice-presidents;
Charles A. Bird, secretary, and Sam Scribner, treasurer. This board of governors was chosen: A. L. Erlanger, William A.
Brady, Charles Prohman, Marcus Loew,
J. Stuart Blackton of the Vitagraph Company, David Belasco, Oscar Hammerstein,
E. D. Stair, William Fox, Alf Hayman,
Charles Burnham and George Nicolai.
A name for the new organization will be chosen at a meeting of the board of governors at the Hotel Astor to-morrow afternoon.

One of the chief questions with which Bible Teachers Training School, commencement exercises, Lexington avenue and Forty-ninth street, 2:30 P. M.

Guilmant Organ School, commencement exercises, First Presbyterian Church, Fifth avenue and Tweifth street, 8 P. M.
United States Commission on Industrial Relations, public hearing on industrial education, apprenticeship and administration of child labor laws, City Hall.
Actors Equity Association, meeting, Hotel Astor, 2 P. M.

MARRIED.

WELLS-SMITH -In Geneva, N. Y., at 64 John's Chapel, May 30, by the Rev. Lyman P. Powell, Jane Terry Sheldon Smith and the Right Rev. Lemuel H. Wells of Spokane, Wash.

COTHREN .- Suddenly, at his home, 178 South Oxford street, Brooklyn, on Fri day, May 29, Frank Howard Cothren. son of the late Nathaniel and Elizabeth Cothren and husband of Marion Cothren, in the forty-third year of his CRITTENDEN .- On May 30, George Myrer Crittenden, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Adolphe E. Smylle. 46A Monroe place. Brooklyn, N. Y., where the funeral service will be held Tuesday. June 2, at 5 o'clock. Interment at con ventence of family.

Funeral private.

FURR.—Robert A., on May 31, born 1840. Funeral services on Tuesday, June 2, 1914. Interment at Woodlawn. Cincinnati, Ohio, papers please copy. GRUENING .- At his home, 36 East Fifty-seventh street, Emil Gruening, M. D., of cerebral endarteritis, aged 71 years. Funeral private. Kindly omit flowers. HOLLANDER .- At Newark, N. J., on Priday, May 29, 1914, Harry, beloved hus band of Theresa Hollander (nee Richeimer) and son of Adolph and Bluma Hollander, in his forty-first year.

Funeral services Tuesday, June 2, 1914, at 10 A. M., at his late residence, 18 Baldwin avenue, Newark, N. J. ment Hebrew Cemetery. South Orange avenue, Newark. Please omit flowers. UIDEKOPER .- On Saturday, May 30, 1914. at her residence, 1614 Eighteenth street, Washington, D. C., Virginia Christie Huidekoper, widow of Frederic Wolters Huidekoper and beloved mother of Frederic Louis Huidekoper and Reginald Shippen Huidekoper.

uneral services at her late residence on Monday, June 1, at 4 P. M. KIDD.—Suddenly, at Albany, N. Y., on Fri-day evening, May 29, 1914, Adeline Jerusha Pumpelly, wife of the late Col. James Kidd and daughter of the late Harmon Pumpelly. Funeral services at St. Peter's Church.

Albany, this Monday afternoon at lo'clock. It is kindly requested that no flowers be sent. fcMANN .- At Englewood, on Friday, May 29. Henry Wallis McMann, son of the late James D. and Eliza Renzille Mo-Funeral services at his late residence, Linden avenue and Dana place, Engle-wood, N. J., on Monday, June 1, at 4:36 P. M. Carriages will meet train leaving Erie station, Jersey City, at 3:40 P. M. Interment private, Kindly omit flowers.

HINE.—Thaddeus, aged 58.
Services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH," 241 Twenty-third street (Campbelling). Notice of funeral hereafter. Building). Auspices Actors' Fund.

OUCHARD .- Early Saturday morning, May 30, 1914, at the residence of her parents, Emeline Holmes Touchard, aged 21 years, beloved wife of Gustave Fitzhugh Touchard and daughter of Jabish and Marie Neff Holmes.

Funeral services at her parents' residence.

108 East Seventy-eighth street, on Monafternoon at 4:80 o'clock. Inter ment at Stonington, Conn.

MacVeigh.—In loving memory of Neil MacVeigh, who died June 1, 1912. Rest